DESPITE ASSURANCES FROM JAPANESE Prime Minister Shinzo Abe that Japan will not dump its toxic wastes in the country, President Macapagal-Arroyo yesterday admitted that the Japan-Philippines Economic Partnership Agreement would face rough sailing in the opposition-dominated Senate.

"I explained to them that we live in a lively democracy, like Japan. Opposition is part of democracy and is expected in the Senate ratification process," Ms Arroyo said after she returned from her trip to Japan yesterday.

RP democracy has matured, says US envoy

DESPITE ELECTION-RELATED VIOLENCE, the conduct of the May 14 national elections here showed that democracy in the Philippines has already matured, a visiting senior American diplomat said yesterday.

"You're coming through some elections. I know some problems with violence but I would say overall the elections have been very successful and a real sign that the Philippines has a very well-developed democracy. It has never been an easy process," US Assistant Secretary of State for East Asia and Pacific Affairs Christopher Hill said in an interview.

Hill arrived in the Philippines Thursday night to attend yesterday's closing session of the Senior Official Meeting (SOM) of the Asean Regional Forum (ARF), to which the US is a member. He was scheduled to leave also yesterday. Cynthia D. Balana

Why the Senate matters

EDITORIAL

BECAUSE IT IS A COUNTERWEIGHT TO MALACAÑANG. In the last several days, when the scale of the Arroyo administration's defeat in the senatorial elections became evident, and not even the most optimistic conditioning strategies of Team Unity spokesmen could negate the evidence, the ghost of Charter change past rematerialized.
